The NRL Snow Searchers Ski Club has joined the Blue Ridge Ski Council on a trip to Grindelwald, Switzerland.

Grindelwald is located in the Bernese Oberland region of Switzerland; it is often referred to as the Jungfrau ski region, with the Eiger, Jungfrau, and Monch Mountains providing their breath-taking majesty above the town. The village sits in a wide sheltered valley surrounded by the magnificent mountains of the Jungfrau region above the spa resort city of Interlaken - "between the two lakes."

We will be staying at the Post & Kreuz Hotel, which is centrally located near the main train station in Grindelwald for both skiers and touring. This is a small four star hotel with 82 rooms, restaurant, bar, sauna, steam bath, whirlpool, solarium, and fitness room. Each room is equipped with private bath, hairdryer, radio, TV, safe, minibar, and telephone. A buffet breakfast at the hotel is included each morning.

The optional 6-day ski pass provides access to 68 ski runs (the longest 11 miles), and a 4387-foot vertical drop from the highest peak of 9750 feet. 12 cable cars and 27 lifts service the slopes. There is also 26 miles of cross-country skiing.

For the non-skiers, there is plenty to do, such as excursions on the train to Interlaken, Berne, or Lucerne. The area has many mountain railways to explore.

The trip will depart Dulles on Friday, March 9th at 6:25pm and returns March 17th at 12:05pm. The flight is a direct flight to Zurich on Swissair. Upon arrival, a motor coach will then take us to Gindelwald, a 2 1/2 hour, 120-mile trip. In addition to the daily breakfast buffet, there will be dinners with all the other trip participants from the other clubs on Sunday, and Thursday nights at the Sunstar Hotel, which is directly down street from our hotel. For the remaining dinners, everyone is on their own to sample among the 50 restaurants in Grindelwald.
